Here are my five steps to a successful home sale:

CONSULT

We'll collaborate closely on your timeline and the logistics of your sale.

PREPARE

I'll streamline the preparation process, including packing and organizing your personal items.

SELL

Once your home is ready for sale I'll create a custom marketing strategy aligned with your need.

PRESENT

I'll present the details of each offer and help you weigh the pros and cons to determine the best outcome.

CELEBRATE

Once your home is sold, we'll celebrate your new beginning and I'll help with the relocation process!
